SUBJECT: Second Five-Year Review for Plattsburgh Air Force Base

Attached is the Second Five-Year Review which has been conducted by the Air Force for the former Plattsburgh Air Force Base. This review was conducted pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA), 40 CFR 300.430(f)(4)(ii), and in accordance with United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) Comprehensive Five-Year Review Guidance (OSWCR Directive No. 9355.7-03B-P).

These reviews are conducted no less often than every five years and are required of any remedial actions that have been selected in accordance with Records of Decisions (RODs) that do not allow for unlimited use and unrestricted exposure. This latest review has determined that the remedies implemented are protective of human health and the environment.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at any time.
